Help our Presenting Partner find a home for one lonely penguin

A trail of individually decorated sculptures, designed by artists and children, and sponsored by businesses, Pop Up Penguins will give residents and visitors a fresh opportunity to discover and delight in all that makes Ōtautahi unique.

This is a very special opportunity for a child (aged 18 and below) living in Canterbury, to create a winning design for a little penguin sculpture to be included on the Pop Up Penguins trail, then keep it forever!

Many schools in Christchurch have registered to receive a little penguin to decorate and be included in the trail, alongside the large sponsored sculptures decorated by artists. At the end of the trail, school penguins will be returned to their schools and the large penguins will be sold at an auction, run by Harcourts, to raise money for Cholmondeley Children's Centre.

However, there is one little penguin that hasn't yet been adopted and Harcourts would like to help. Before this plucky little penguin takes their place on the trail, we need to come up with a great new outfit to be painted on. Could you design an outfit for this penguin?

When you're coming up with a design, why not consider some of the themes of Pop Up Penguins:

Last year the hoiho penguin was voted NZ Bird of the Year, but did you know there are 17 different penguin species living in the Southern Hemisphere?

Christchurch is one of five Gateways to Antarctica, which means many explorers, scientists and environmentalists come through our city on their way to discover more about this mysterious continent. What do you know about Antarctica?

Penguins live in colonies; community is really important to them. That's true in Christchurch too. What does community mean to you?

Penguins and many other birds, animals and sea life are facing extinction because of climate change. What can we do to slow down climate change?

Our judges are looking forward to seeing designs inspired by these themes.

The Prize

The winning design will be put on a 1-metre high penguin sculpture by a Pop Up Penguin artist. The sculpture will be included in the trail, with the winner's name and their school name featuring on all our marketing.

At the end of the trail, Harcourts will invite the winner and an accompanying adult to the Pop Up Penguins auction where they will be presented with their sculpture, to keep!
